Good-bye Class of 2010

I look back at the past two and half years and I think of all the wonderful experiences you have shared with me! Really...there have been many! I will always remember the smiles you have ready for me as you walk into my office. Not sure, if you're smiling because you are about to ask for a schedule change that I will deny ☺ or if you are smiling because you are happy to see me! Either way, I can't forget the smiles.

It is unfortunate that I have not gotten to know all of the students of the Class of 2010 for each of you surely have many things about you that would have amazed me had we had the chance to sit and visit; I am delighted to have gotten to know the last part of the alpha.

For what it's worth, you are now heading towards the next chapter of your life. You will soon be on your own, to succeed in whatever you choose to do. I will not be there to say "what were you thinking?" or "is that the right choice?"....you will have to make your decisions on your own. I believe in you and look forward to hearing great things coming from the Class of 2010.

I, too, am embarking on another journey. I will be the Lead Counselor at Hernandez Middle School. You are my last graduating class at SPSHS! I can honestly say that I will cherish the memories many of you have left with me. ☺ I hope you have fond memories of me as well. In your own way, each of you has prepared to face this next chapter. I hope that you will make the most of it. Good luck to you all and may God continue to bless you.

Until we meet again,

Ms. Gallego
